AN APPEAL TO THE FARMERS.

SACKED BY THE HEATHEN.

and no trouble is anticipated.

troved by the mob.

touched. Soldiers have be houses, entered churches and priests'

Maru sunk immediately, and only about

Earthquake Phenomena.

ful change in the topography and ap-is principally to stockmen, who have lost many head of cattle. The small stream four miles north of Lerdo, which prior to the earthquake was owing to its depth. It is now necessary liable to occur soon. They say natural

ATLANTA, GA, August 12.-Some-

TMENT-

time, his genius, his talent, his soul. near the fasubject of death-bed, and clearing off the vials of the v "A poor for nought; and then left him. He had a magnifiment they elt so sorry without a et them go v text was rselves for med withon your lap; that it gives no peace when conscience rings its alarm; that it gives no explanation in the day of dire trout the purnave sold the investment? No; "Ye have sold for nought; and ye shall be redeemed yourselves for nought." Your con- without money "O, atoning blood, ome ade-Bible went. Your heaven went. Your ciffying blood, glorifying blood of Jesus! God went. When a sheriff under a writ Why not burst into tears at the thought from the courts sells a man out, the offi- hat for thee he; shed it. summer cer generally leaves a few chairs and a bed, and a few cups and knives; but in nothing to do with it except that, like this awful vendue in which you have the enemies of Christ, I put both my has come down upon body, mind and both palms full, and throw it on my idea what your soul was worth? Did penas. nal pulses? Have you not felt the dron this sucject. You see that you are quiver of its peerless wing? Have you not known that after leaving the body, you back. There are three persons who lasting Jehovah expires? Oh, my brothhave sold yourself for nought."

for the recovery of that soul of yours. I away your sins, they will carry you want to show that you have been cheat- away. Unless you allow Christ to lift ed out of it. I want to prove, as I will, you up, they will drag you down. There that you were crazy on that subject, and that the world, under such circumstances, had no right to take the titledeed from you; and if you will join me I paying your debts. Christ, the divine shall get a decree from the high chancery court of Heaven reinstating you into tivily. the possession of your soul. 'Oh, you deemed without money." tion, an extension of Wail st eet. Bal have pleaded if you had repented, will men would go up and buy out the place plead against you.

after a while the clock of night in Beth- ute, that second! tehem strikes twelve, and the silver

That wretch of an actor just now recited | tended it to sieken you with your sin. four of my lines without the proper ac- Do not act as though you had nothing to cent and gesture. To have the children do with that Calvarian massacre. You YOUR SOUL of my brain so hung, drawn, and quer- had. Your sins were the implements of tered, tortures me lke a condemned torture. Those implements were not made of steel, and iron, and wood, so I went to see a wording die. As I buch as out of your sins. Guilty of this went into the hall I saw its floor was hopicide, and this regionde, and this tessellated, and its wall was a picture deicde, confess your guilt today. Ten gailery. I found his death-chamber thousand voices of heaven bring in the adorned with tapestry until it seemed as verdechigainst you of guilty, guilty. Pre-9. -Dr. Tal- if the clouds of the setting sun had set- pare to lie, or believe in that blood. tled in the room. The man had given Stretch verself out for the sacrifice, or forty years to the world-his wit, his accept the Saviour's sacrtice. Do not fling away yar one chancel > death-bed, and clearing off the vials of bitter medicine, put down any compensation? Oh, no: The world does not like sick and dying people, and leaves them in the lurch. It ruined this man, them in the lurch. It ruined this man, it is too cheap a price. The first bid in makes is the cars of Christ at the tomb of Lazarus; at that is not a high enough price. The next bid haven makes is the sweat of athseman: but it is too cheap a price. The next bid haven it is too cheap a price. The next kd cent funeral. All the ministers wore back of Pilate's hall; but it, not a high and care that is lacking in my paper, and riages in a row; but the departed man appreciated not the obsequies.

>
> I want to persuade my audience that it this world is a poor investment; that it does not now appreciated not the obsequies.
>
> I want to persuade my audience that it for that it this world is a poor investment; that it does not now pinety now appreciated not the obsequies.
>
> I want to persuade my audience that it does not now pinety now p does not pay ninety per cent of satis-faction, nor eighty per cent nor twenty temple, the blood on his cheek, the blood on his service, and these mofaction, nor eighty per cent nor twenty on his chin, the blood on his hand, be represented the property of this chin, the blood on his hand, be represented to the property of the blood on his foot-the blood in drops sion. the blood in rills, the blood in pools Too frest in the minds of all are the ble; and at the time of your decease it that wet the tips of the soldiers' spears, takes hold of the pillow case, and shakes out the feathers, and then jolts down in the place thereof sighs, and groans, and bid wins it! The highest price that was execrations, and then makes you put ever paid for anything was paid for your your head on it. Oh. ye who have tried soul. Nothing could buy it but blood! this world, is it a satisfactory portion? The estranged property is bought back. Would you advise your friends to make Take it. "You have sold yourselves science went. Your hope went. Your cleansing blood, life-giving blood, san-

"No," says some one, "I will have been engaged the auctioneer's mallet hands into that carnage and scoop up soul: Going! Gone! "Ye have sold head and cry: "His blood be on us and yourselves for nought." Can you do such a How could you do so? Did you think shocking thing as that? Just rub your that your soul was a mere trinklet which handkerchief neross your brow and look for a few pennies you could buy in a toy at it. It is the blood of the Son of God, shop? Did you think that your soul, if whom you have despised and driven once lost, might be found again if you back all these years. Oh, do not do that went out with torches and lanterns? any longer! Come out boldly and frankly Did you think that your soul was short- and honestly, and tell Christ you are lived, and that, panting, it would soon sorry. You cannot afford to so roughly lie down for extinction? Or had you no treat him, upon whom everything de-you ever put your forefingers on its eter- I do not know how you will get away the first step of your soul reaches to the come after you today: God, the Father; stars, and the next step to the fartherest | God. the Son; God, the Holy Ghost. outposts of God's universe, and that it They unite their three omnipotences in will not die until the day when the ever- one movement for your salvation. You will not take up arms against the Triune er, what possessed you that you should God, will you? Is there enough muspart with your soul so cheap? "You cle in your arms for such a combat? By the higest throne in heaven, and by the But I have some good news to tell deepest chasm in hell, I beg you look you. I want to engage in a litigation out. Unless you allow Christ to carry is only one hope for you, and that is the blood. Christ, the sm-offering, bearing your trangressions. Christ, the surety,

Cyrus, loosening your Babylonish cap-Would you not like to be free? Here say, "I am afraid of lawsuits, they are is the price of your liberation-not so expensive, and I cannot pay the money, but blood. I tremble from head Then have you forgotten the to foot, not because I fear your preslast half of my text? "Ye have sold ence, but because I fear that you will yourself for nought; and ye shall be re- miss your chance of immortal rescue. This is the alternative divinely put: Money is good for a great many "He that believth on the Son shall have things, but it cannot do anything in this everlasting life; and he that believth not matter of the soul. You can not buy on the Son shall not see life, but the your way through. Dollars and pounds wrath of God abideth on him." In the sterling mean nothing at the gate of last day if you now reject Christ, every mercy. If you could buy your salva- drop of that sacrificial blood, instead of tion, heaven would be a great specula- pleading for your release, as it would and leave us to shift for ourselves. But O Lord God of the judgment day! as money is not a lawful tender, what avert that calamity! Let us see the is? I will answer: Blood! Whose? quick flash of the cimeter that slays the Are we to go through the slaughter? sin but saves the sinner. Sinke, a . nip-Oh, no; .t wants richer blood than ours. oten: God, for the soul's deliverance! It wants a king's blood. It must be Beat, O eternal sea! with all thy waves poured from royal arteries. It must be again the barren beach of that rocky sinless torrent. But where is the soul, and make it tremble. Oh! the king? I see a great many thrones and oppressiveness of the hour, the minute, a great many occupants, yet none seem the second, on which the oul's destiny to be coming down to the rescue. But quivers, and this is that hour, that min-

Some years ago there came do vu a pendulum of a star swings across the fierce storm on the seacoast, and a ves- truth and honor, perhaps it is needless name. sky, and I see the King of Heaven ris- sel got in the breakers and was going to to assure you that this will be a foundaing up, and he descends, and steps down pieces. They threw up some signals of tion stone in Clemson College. Along from star to star, and from cloud to distress, and the people on shore saw with this more chivatrous element will State that it came into the mint the cloud, lower and lower, until he touches them. They put out in a lifeboat. They go hand in hand in the character build- owner of the old home of John Calthe sheep-covered hills, and then on to came on, and they saw the poor sailors. another hill, this last skull-snaped, and almost exhausted, cl nging to a raft; and there, at t e sharp stroke of persecu- so afraid were the boatmen that the men ilon, a rill incarnadine trickles down, would give up before they got to them, sponsibilities that make the successful the character of the State's nobleson and we who could not be redeemed by they gave them three rounds of cheers, man. The cultivation of the esprit de on those who were to bear the den money are redeemed by precious and im- and cried: "Hold on there! hold on! corps will be looked to as the safeguard o sustaining her name in the wlof

THE NEW EDUCATION.

OBJECTS.

An Address Delivered by President Strode Before the State Agricultural and Mechanical Society at its Summer Meeting

When I received from your secretary the honor of the invitation to address excused in view of the engrossing nature of the great work at Fort Hill, the daily superintendence of which is my duty. But as I did not then beg to be excused, in my great desire to meet you I must

College to need now a minute histosonits beginning. Thomas G. Clemdied'e son-in-iaw of John C. Calhoun, 814 aApril, 1888, leaving by his will $80,000 f. hn C. Calhoun, and about founding equest to the Sate for the

Finally this of THE COLLEGE. legally used for buildings, was be dear ones that the separation which sufficient to provide against finisht brings such opportunities is robbed of its reassment. pangs. Noble buildings buoy up his aspirations. Ardent, thoughtful, reof an executive committee to represent may have planned through the board in the intervals between their house for the hope of the house. regular meetings, which could not be fires to year the same home sacrifrequent with the board composed of out prine boy, of whom they grow gentlemen living in widely separated parts of the State. The next act was the election of a president of the College paras to an, no longer a boy, reto be a representative of the executive still a farmed homestoad. If he is committee for all current business which the old people a power for good to had to be transacted in the two weeks' ded into spone. intervals, which finally became the set some of the 1 development along periods between the meetings of the com- education, whones of technological mittee. Thus the plans of the College snaping the rudægret the money in along all its lines of growth and pro- new powers for try mind into such gress represent by the organization the work of the members of the full board, who have given their time and devotion in its own line, aill be scholarly to the great task. Provided for by the new hope and ended breathe with far-seeing mind of Mr. Clemson against made a scientific fari The man is the dangers of sudden changes in the use his brain according to board of trustees, the College has been of reason. We will not he motheds from the beginning under the influence of Virgil for farming direction pages of a steady policy which has had as its or turn back to even mor of oday, ruling princible the founding of one of in the South for experiennttimes the greatest institutions of its character direct us in the tuture. Wat 1s to in the South. A GOOD FOUNDATION. As the representative of the executive of our late slaves, we are tor part committee, which in its turn represents a feeling of sympathy for the with the fuller management, I am by your of these our old helpers in thoses courtesy here today to tell you what Necessity is upon us with harschy. words of hope and promise they wish to and we must find new substitut femethods they expect that the sentiments of honor, the spirit of thoroughness, and the cultivation of a pure ambition may realms of enchantment. Slaver a gone The FIELD BEFORE THE SHOP. be made to blend in an educational sys- and, whilst there still remaisas itsute by no means covered the crowd tem with that training of the hand, the product that master race which s won w to be considered. If this should eye and the brain that is to form the new the admiration of the world an forced precedly in the end reduce to a education. As all must recognize that the respect of its enemies, we ker that nr number the crowding throng no institution in the South can aspire to the South must look to its you! filled sweeking to enter college, we can be the first rank that ignores as the basic with the inspiration and ambins of mahat still enough will be left to element of Southern manhood a love of the new education, to sustain to old brilline first year's work at least a ing attempted there the forming of those houn to dedicate that spot of alhers habits of promptness, accuracy, thoroug- to the use that would make it ever ness and reliability in regard to all re- the most affective agency in ming they gave them three rounds of cheers, and cried: "Hold on there! hold on! We'll save you!" After awhile the boat came up. One man was saved by having the boat-hook put in the collar of the boat-hook put in the collar of the successing the character of the State's nobleson on those who were to bear the industries on of all the agricultural of the college. Its graduates will go forth with that tie still attaching them the farmer of that day with all the college to favor ing distance the people on shore cried out from out from you save any of them? Did you save any of them? And as the boat you save any of them? And as the boat swept through the boiling surf and came to the pier-head, the captain waved his to the pier-head to the pier to thought to be the untnink-like to be striven against by educating suffer for the lack of technologies. ploughboy's step, and with it the slouch viduals and States. t of the mental gait that encumbers and to transfer their knowledge from the

MISSIONARIES OF PROGRESS. It six hundred boys return from col-

ege to their homes each year, think er boys will have heard with quickened struction on this line. This instruction coagulated beneath the cross; the blood vents which led to the founding of Clem- pulse the lectures on agricultural science may be given in a most economical for n that will brighten as on a background through the medium of institutes. all the dark ages of their past life.

THE MAKING OF A MAN. Let us follow one typical farmer boy old hor of land, with Fort Hill, the from field to college and through its courses. He loves the dear old home, stock as money and interest bearing with its tender-faced mother and grancertain com agricultural college, if countryside where war has perhaps left throw an immense amount of work on certain corn agricultural college, if countryside where war has perhaps left throw an immense amount of work on smouldering in North China. Occasion- the yachts were moored. They all silent streams proclaim the absence of not average and process are process. accepted, and quest was formally distance the blue hills that mark Carodecepted, and, sympathy with the lina's western boundary. He reaches public schools in the country is a crying lature furthermore State, the Legis- Fort Hill and is on the ground once halcoming from the anted certain funds lowed by the tread of the great Calhoun. and the proceeds oral Government, He joins his sadet comracles, already a evied on those integrtain small tax noble six hundred. In all the stir as an annual income rl in fertilizers, around him he notes earnestness in the lege. These combinestain the Col- features and bearing of those who adenue were found tources of rev- dress him. There are echoes of the seventy and sventy-five tid between "Psalm of Life" in the air he breathes. South. The matter of a builin the tion. He feels the quickened pulse of a was not at once arranged, as a fund new life. He begins to grow with a annual revenue, part of which nple new growth. His letters home tell the

The boa d of trustees, compesed sponsive natures in teachers and comseven gentlemen appointed by Mr. Clerades bear up the burden of blome-sick-

THE NEW e98? The new educatiation. tures of affectionate loyalty & pic-

A FORTUNATE LOCATION Fortunate was it for the yout the over the exhausted sailors that lay ing machines to prop the supports of futhe exhausted sailors that lay ing machines to prop the supports of the bottom of the bottom of the bottom of the ture tyranny, whilst they draw their inied: "All saved! Thank spiration from the record of that citizen lines of human effort. The resultingroun the State or endowment! 2" So may it be today. soldiery that has reddened the turf on thou and reaction between the two folenominational college should are many s field in America in patriotic con- will be a wonderful stimulant for boom its friends for a department of cheer you with test's for constitutional liberty. In the In the division of brain labor and in its kind. There cannot be too may buttoning into the tight uniform will be great diversity of human talent as cocilities in this the new education days there has been a considerable intelligible training that braces into monly displayed is found the great his suggests to me to state that among crease in the number of pilgrims, all erectness and takes the slouch out of the portunity of healthful progress for in many noble workers at Clemson is

MANUAL LABOR REQUIRED. illy remark as to what that man alrious to be permitted to touch the Strong is the State as is a braced stould be worth to us and to himself if strong is the State as is a cruid ne wor in to us and to himself if ture which has within its own fram had had the training of a technologdepartments the College the footings for its bracing. So his school, He will have it, thanks to two distinct lines of board, in the broadest liberality that t good fortune that placed Clemson choice between means at their disposal will permit, ahis door and made him one of its The latter to make the College all it should be, ders.

The latter to make the Conege and a short of the Sta Unselfish patriots.

London, Aug. 12—The Daily News dying of his wound. Arp belongs to this morning commenting on the action one of the leading families of this sec the agricultural. Mr. Clemson tees propose to throw open the advice of his will named two cos of the institution to welcome the says that it is reassuring to learn that crops in the United States promise to yield an exceptionally large harvest. The farmers of America, the papers described as a superficient of the situation of the states. wed the fuller range of choice due their strength mel rentlemen have shown them unselfish, and they

seems to be unlimited when science and students will in the agriculturial depart- tinue to bear all unjust criticism with practical arts are to be applied to agri-culture. The field opens with the study thus bear about half the expense of best attested the purity of their inten-CLEMSON COLLEGE-ITS ORIGIN AND of animal and vegetable life in all their board. A student may thus safely atforms, the broad field of biology. Lend the College who can but buy his In the vegetable world we have the plants clothing and books and pay half the net both useful and notxious and the ways of cost of his board. With this manual nursing the one into thrifty life and stif- feature will be preached the gospel of ling the other to an untimely end. Then work and that high above all ignoble come the various methods of propaga- things stands the dignity of labor. There tion of plants, where their life and rapid is no lesson that our Southern people serfs to the oil when their tastes and multiplication are to be desired, by seed, | can more profitably learn than that the | talents, which are God-given, may point by budding, by grafting, etc. In these practical arts of the fields the farmer with noble workers. May we not find inventor, oh, grant him, I pray you, the boys will indeed feel at home. Their to mingle in the song of the reaper, in opportunity to obey God's will! Crush you I might very well have asked to be growth in scientific thought will go hand the hot days of his labor, the spirit of a not the bud, when but liftins the crust, in hand with the applications in the field itself. If they learn to bud and graft, in heraldry, and that with the ring of the might fill with plenty the garners of for instance, they will learn it in a way anvil there may chine the rin; of the home and State. Appeals will be made heavy rain accompanied that will enable them to use it practically soul of the humblest artisan? EDUCATIONAL MISSIONARIES.

College fields to the home orchards. It is contemplated by the board to your insanity, if it comes, may raise your hand to strike that cruel blow. transfer of the sciences and arts taught assist in spreading the sciences and Think not that I name an impossible at the College to the people in their dis- arts of its curriculum over the State evil. It is the history of these instituthrough the medium of various insti-tues throughout the year. In the mat-act in maddening despair it is the opselves are without the necessary train-tempests of despair. the ideas of these homes. These farming that would enable them to give in-Thus later preparation in this and other lines may be exacted of pupils who come up to the College, and valuable time may be saved in the higher institution. Clemson College must take as its preparatory schools main'y the public ite-souled father. He passes along the state of preparation as a basis, and will silent streams proclaim the absence of not exact of the farmer boys a preparathe genius of progress. He sees in the distance the blue hills that mark Caro- distance the blue hills that mark Caro- matters now stand. A better grad at attacked, but no particulars were receiv- tal damage amounts to $10,000. matters now stand. A better grade of ed. want that we must all recognize, and must help to better. As long as the neccessity the College itself must provide a way to bring its students up to a college basis.

adopted for registration, it is only ne- Wusu-l. as a warning to other evil- they all escaped without injury, except cessary to write to the president of doers. Clemson College Fort Hill, S. C., the A correspondent at Tiensten writes un- broken leg and the other a contusion of annually, and to place thind dollars of the mes in Carolina, as sacred as annually, and to place the bis have sent their iswels most precious. The sacred as the bis have sent their iswels most precious. The sacred as the bis have sent their iswels most precious. The sacred as the bis have sent their iswels most precious. The sacred as the bis have sent their iswels most precious. once on a footing of college at his, have sent their jewels most precious enter, his parent or guardian, with postthe richest institutions of leavy with to the State's shrine of the new educa-office, county or State. A fair apportionment will be made among the counties in adopting any rules to limit the number of students to be taken.

No more stringent rules will be adopted in regard to entrance into the preparatory department than would be reasonable for boys who have had no highseven gentlemen appointed by Mr. Cleanes sear up the burden of home-sicks on as a self-perpetuating body, and oss. He enters his classes and begins son as a self-perpetuating body, and oss. He enters his classes and begins the College. All who register will be six others elected by the Legislature for great work of his life, the changing duly informed by circular of all changes with his revolver. The authorities final-cannot be estimated. The loss at Washterms of four years each, met, organized a unthinking man into a machine of made by the board affecting their in- ly sent the military to the scene and the burn is probably $50,000. and took up their great responsibility. Sectual power. He loves with a correction of their irist acts was the election over the unselfish hearts at home agricultural and made by the board affecting their interests. The College will be distinctly agricultural and mechanical, and not a lanical, and not a great rival of the purely literary institutions of the State. The board has yet to pass on the details of the curriculum before they can be published authoritatively. OVER SIX HUNDRED APPLICANTS.

It was generally made known, I believe, by the late speech of the Governor at the laying of the corner-stone, that applications for registry on the braks of the College, even then, six six hundred. A large manner invased of entered since, and persons well-posted predict that even one thousand may apply by the time the College opens its out, and they now patrol the streets at doors. All names will be continued to night, guarding the Roman Catholic those on same ands. some plan of discrimination or prescribes a limit. As has been said by uneasiness prevails. high authority the record is unparalleled in the history of colleges, and shows a union of the whole prople of the State and argues well for their highest interests. Not only for the State but for her neighbors also will this picture of a united front in the cause of industrial | Thesum claimed is $1.500,000 education prove the lesson, teaching to the pathetic past, with its turn by example, that in union there is ulars of the sinking of the steamer Tamstrength.

A GREAT MISSION If Carolina, the fair beauty of the ave Maid and another steamer, the South but thirty years ago, as an eloquent tongue once said, "set us the latter steered across the Tamaye's course path to Stygian horrors with the splengo out through you to the expectant youh of the state; to tell you by what cultivation of the state; to tell you by what chan experiment. At first the mefully side of the College may not be by thereciated, but as the years go The levill be growing interest there. at Ur in the shops must be classed calling purely educational and not side sh. pay. Those entering on this and avo understand this difference try hoys isappointment. The coun-

signs indicate it. we have in this day professed Christians who are so racelled and etherealized that they do not want a religion of blood. Wint do you want? You seem to want a religion of blood. Wint do you want? You seem to want a religion of blood with they have all special to want a religion of blood. With they all got into the boat says: "In the blood is the life." Now," says the captain, "for the shore. Pull away now, pull!" The propie on the land were afraid the life boat stays. Why, it outs have the people on the land were afraid the life bring hands and withdraw the blood, and you lancet into the arm of our holy religion and withdraw the blood, and you leave it a mere corpse, fit only far the grave, why did God command the shore with the propie on the land were were mentioned and they have all persisted the first with the still attaching them to point with honorable pride to the instruction that moulded the manner of the college. Its graduates will go the college. Its graduates will go the will tataching them to used the still attaching them to be the manner that will teach the savery upon it. He was the old the farmer of that day with all this the still attaching them to point with honorable pride to the savery upon it is east, and it they all the still attaching them to point with honorable pride to the instruction that moulded the manner that will teach the matural conditions as the first will the therm at the was the old the farmer of that day with all this the will the farmer of the College. Its graduates will go the boat-stays will got the still attaching them to the almost will the the the still attaching them to be the first will the the through the manner that will tatach the still attaching them to the almost and tunned to the still the still attaching them to the manner that will tatach the still attaching them to the farmer of the College in connection with the them the sold was the old the part of the College in connection with the federal grant, will be planted the with honorable pride to the save the old t police states that he has evidence conclusively proving that McMichael, wro is a negro, had a large trade with the members of the Assembly. The members of the House are very indignant and the matter has created great exof beer.

> being perfectly free to form his opinion | ror and a loss of vouchers. who has the highest respect of anxiously awaiting the public exhibi- kiah Arp, nephew to the original Bill ose in charge there, and it is almost a six people have also arrived, who are State line in Fannin County yesterday tily remark as to what that man six people have also arrived, who are rele, in the hope of being healed. These people expect a repitition of the mira-

on prejous occasions of the kind pstponed a few chairs to another oc-tion when their importance might be and it is to be ho In this and and among work of corners in the

WINDS' WILD WORK.

WASHBURN VISITED BY A DESTRUC Farmers of the State, in your hands, TIVE TORNADO.

where lies the power of numbers, is placed the great trust to Clemson Col-Two People Killed and Scores Injured in lege. Guard it as a sacred trust that promises a future for your children, a Circus-The Animals Escape From which would not hold them unwilling Their Cages-Great Damage to Pro-

> ASHLAND, Wis., Aug. 8 .- A terrible tornado struck this place at 4 o'clock this afternoon, demoralizing buildings and tearing things up in general. A heavy rain accompanied it, flooding the

the present nursling of your care. Pray At Washburn, across the bay from Ashland, the tornado's force was more furious. Business blocks were seriously damaged and seven people in one building were slightly injured. Prof. Williams's circus was giving a per-formance, the tents were torn to shatter of drawing, for instance, which is the very basis of technology, the public all classes. In the hour of your fond but, fortunately, only two were killed schools of the State can, as a rule, provide nursing guard yourselves against that George Dedbell and Louis Wilson. The no preparation, as the teachers them- other hour that may come with its animals escaped from their cages and are still running wild in the streets. About 60,000 bushels is damaged in the Chicago, St. Paul, Minnesota and Omaha elevator. Several pleasure yachts were caught on Chequamegon Christian Missionaries in Chinain Dauger Bay and have not been heard from as yet. The roof was stripped from the Fifield block. The Sweedish Baptist Church was lifted four feet from its SAN FRANCISCO, August 12.—The steamship Oceanic arrived last evening foundations and turned around, and from Hong Kong and Yokohama. Adnumerous small buildings were twisted vices from Hong Kong, up to July 15, about.

state that the fire of discontent is still

The worst effects of the storm were Two of the Wusuch rioters on trial experienced at Washburn, on the opposite side of the bay. The postoffice voluntarily confessed that they murdered building, a frame structure on Main street, in which were half a dozen pertwo foreigners during the Wusuch riots. The prisoners were accordingly sent back to the Kuang Chi district and executed in what seemed to be a death trap, but sons, collapsed and caught the inmates So far as is required by the rules on July 5. Their heads are hung up at by a fortunate lodgment of timbers, two women, one of whom suffered a are badly wrecked. The roof of the Omaha elevator was lifted up and A correspondent at Tseing Kiang, under date of June 27, writes that the dashed into the bay, exposing the stock viceroy wrote to officials here that the of wheat to the rain. The dry docks and hoisting engines at the coal dock residences of foreigners should be searchwere blown over and ruined, and many ed to see if they had any bodies or dead people's bones about. The Presbyterian yards of the Bigelow mills were blawn er opportunities than those of the ordin- a crowd of excited natives waited out- reported lost on the Chequamengo Bay, into the water. Several sail boats are ary public schools in the country. But side. Mob broke into the Catholic mis- but the reports are not verified, and

The Weather and the Crops

On July 4 news came by telegraph The weekly weather and crop bullefrom the southern part of the province tin of the South Carolina weather serof serious rioting. In this section the vice, in co-operation with the United Catholics have large property interests, States Signal Service, for the past week many fine churches and a large orphan- was issued Saturday afternoon and it is age. Several of these have been desas follows, giving much information to the farmers in the various sections At Fuchea Fu the rioters wrecked The weather conditions for the past houses, and sacked everything, but did week have been generally favorable in not burn any buildings. The amount of most sections of the State to the cotton done is not known, but it is crop acous sight seignsing about the better condition be registered until the board adopts Church's property. The town is now rains of the previous week do not appear left without a gunboat, and a feeling of to have injured the former to the extent of those of the latter; while it is true A telegram from Tientsin states that that the plant has saed some of the the French and British ministers in China forms on the clay lands, but the shedhave opened regotiations with Tsungli ding has been much greater and the in-Yamen in regard to their claim for injury much more extensive on the sandy lands: besides rust is reported and demnity on account of the recent riots. greater injury must necessarily follow. In some sections of the State, where Advices from Yokchama give partic-

the crop was well cultivated and no excessive rains have fallen, the crop is unaye Maru and the drowning of the hunexceptionally fine, and a large yield may dred and sixty passengers. The Tambe looked for, but the area is not large and is confined to those particular sec Myoshi Maru, were racing, when the tions. Cotton caterpillars have made their and the vessels collided. The Tamays appearence on the coast, but as yet no damage reported. The corn crop is very fine, and as the sixty peop'e, who were on deck, were early corn is now about matured, a large yield must follow. Some little damage has been sustained by some of YUMA, Arizona, Aug. 11.—Daily arm- the farmers from overflows on creek vals from the region of Sonora, on the bottoms. The crops on the river bottoms Colorado River, report a most wonder- were never better, but are later than usual, and if favorable seasons continue pearance of the country. Many old for a few weeks, the yield will be larger landmarks are obliterated, prominent than for years. natural objects are wiped off the face of the rice crop on the rivers and upof the earth, and new ones created in lands is looking remarkably well, stands unexpected places. The damage done good and in fine condition.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 8 .- - A conference of the Farmers' Alliances and the readily forded, has become impassable, anti-lottery. Democrats at La Fayette has resulted in an agreement by which to cross the watercourse six miles back a joint ticket will be nominated. The from the Colorado. The Cocopah In- Farmers' Alliance will name the Goverdians now predict another earthquake nor, Treasurer and Superintendent of Public Education, and the antilottery league the Lieutenant Governor. Auditor, Attorney General and Secretary of State. These nominations are to be hing of a sensation in the shape of a made by a convention elected by all the "blind tiger" was unearthed in the white voters who are opposed to the lot-State capitol this morning, when the tery, and afterward submitted to the chief of police of the city with two de- Democratic State Convention. The Altectives arrested Peter McMichael, a liance accepted this agreement, and at porter in the State Senate, for selling once nominated Thomas F. Adams, its iquor without a license. The chief of President and State Commissioner of Agriculture, for Governor. The campaign will be almost altogether on the lottery issue.

Alliance Sensation.

ATLANTA, Aug. 10.-The Journal citement. Governor Northern gave the this afternoon prints a sensation in Alchief of police authority to make the liance circles. J. O. Wynn, business raid in the ante-room where the whis- agent of the Georgia State Alliance exkey was sold. The detectives found change, is said to be $20,000 short in fourteen bottles of whiskey and a lot his accounts. The directors appointed W. A. Broughton, treasurer of the exchange, to examine his books, and the shortage was discovered. Mr. Wynn is London, Aug. 13.—It is stated on under $5,000 bond. His bondsmen met high ecclesiastical authority in Ger- this atternoon and have arranged to many that there is no obligation on German Catholics to believe that the claims the shortage is out-and-out de-Holy Coat of Treves is a garment that falcation. Wyon makes the statement was worn by the Saviour, everybody that the shortage is due to a clerical er-

ATLANTA, GA, August 10.-Hezeion of the holy coat. A number of Arp, shot two men to death near the Arp held a claim against W. H. Bram let, who was about to leave the State and had a yoke of steers attached. This cles thich are said to have happened produced a quarrel and Arp shot Bramlet through the heart. Bramlet's brother then took a hand in the row and was shot through the chest, subsequently LONDON, Aug. 12 - The Daily News dying of his wound. Arp belongs to

> w His Brains Out. . Aug. 6.-Mr. Louis, the